The Rock Network Computing/Email Policy & Contract 2016/17

The ROCK of Kingsley Youth Center is responsible for securing its network and computing system to a reasonable and economically feasible degree against unauthorized access and/or abuse, while making them accessible for authorized and legitimate users. This responsibility includes informing users of the expected standards of conduct and the disciplinary or legal consequences for not adhering to them. Any attempt to violate the provisions of this policy will result in disciplinary action and possible revocation of use regardless of the success or failure of the attempt. Once a user is granted permission to access the electronics network facilities, the user is solely responsible for all actions while using the equipment. Therefore, the following actions are prohibited:

- any deliberate action, which damages or disrupts a computing system or network, alters its normal performance or causes malfunction, regardless of location or time duration. (trying to “crash” network systems or programs)
- any willful development or introduction of computer “viruses,” disruptive, or destructive programs into the Rock Youth Center network. NO DOWNLOADING WITHOUT PERMISSION!
- deleting, copying, or modification of any files and/or data belonging to other users without their prior consent.
- transmitting and/or processing files containing obscene, indecent, lewd material or other material, which explicitly or implicitly refer to sexual conduct.
- transmitting any material in violation of any United States or state regulations. This includes, but not limited to, copyrighted and threatening materials.
- impeding other users through mass consumption of system resources.
- using facilities and/or services for unauthorized commercial purposes.
- forging or attempting to forge electronic mails messages.
- attempting to read, delete, copy, modify, or view without permission, other users email.
- sending or attempting to send harassing, obscene and/or threatening email to another user.
- attempting to send unsolicited junk mail, “for profit” messages, or chain letters.
- or any other action that is deemed inappropriate.

The ROCK of Kingsley Youth Center electronic network facilities are to be used exclusively for education, related functions, and applications. The ROCK Youth Center Director will have access to all files, including email files. Users will have no expectation of privacy with regard to said files or email. Any attempt to break the law through the use of the network will result in litigation against the offender by the proper authorities. If such an event should occur, the Rock of Kingsley Youth center will fully comply with the authorities to provide any information necessary for the litigation process.

I understand and agree to abide by the terms and conditions of the ROCK Youth Centers’ Network Computing and E-mail Policy. I further understand that any violations of the above regulations are unethical and may constitute a criminal offense. I understand that any violation of these terms and conditions will result in the revocation of my access rights and the imposition of youth center discipline. In addition the ROCK Youth Center will comply with the authorities to provide any information necessary for the litigation process. As the parent/guardian of this student, I have read the Terms and Conditions for access to the ROCK of Kingsley Youth Center Network Computing and E-mail Policy. I understand that this access is designed for educational purposes and the ROCK Youth Center has taken precautions to eliminate controversial materials. However, I also recognize that it is impossible for the ROCK of Kingsley Youth Center to restrict access to all controversial materials, and I will not hold the ROCK of Kingsley Youth Center, the Rock Youth Center's Staff, or the Rock of Kingsley Youth Center Board of Directors responsible for materials acquired on the network. Further, I understand that the inappropriate use of network by my child will result in the revocation of my child's access rights and imposition of youth center discipline. In addition, the ROCK of Kingsley Youth Center will comply with the authorities to provide any information necessary for the litigation process. I accept full responsibility for supervision if and when my child's use is not in a youth center setting. Further, I accept responsibility for any damages or injuries caused by my child's use of the network, either in the youth center or outside of the youth center, in a manner which violates the Terms and Conditions set forth in this agreement. With this understanding, I hereby give permission to issue electronic access for my child and certify that the information on this form is correct.
